Sound Art Jose Manuel Costa

La Casa Encendida is organising the first SOUnD ART exhibition ever to take place in Madrid. Curated by Jose Manuel Costa, the show aims to provide spectators with the opportunity to learn more about the complexity of sound art and its multiple forms through the work created by different national and international artists over the course of the last decade. SOUnD ART is therefore not just an exhibition - it is also a festival of sound performance, including film screenings, music, radio, workshops and other such activities. The exhibition proper will be held in various spaces at La Casa Encendida (exhibition halls, staircases, terrace, tower and clock), as well as in the gardens adjacent to the old observatory near Atocha and in a variety of urban spaces in the vicinity of La Casa Encendida.
